Dry Whey - Western Europe

Report 23 - Released on June 04, 2020

Western European whey prices are steady. Sources say that demand for whey within Western Europe is also considered steady. However, prices are inconsistent among producing countries. German prices are the highest. Netherlands prices tend to be lower.

Current export demand is good. Manufacturers report that buyers from China have been actively seeking deals. This is not so much a new frontier for whey exports, as it is continuing to return to pre COVID-19 patterns.

Prices for: Western Europe, All First Sales, Free on Board - Port, Conventional, and Edible Dry Whey

Price Range - Non-Hygroscopic; $/MT: 650 - 825

Information for the period May 25 - June 5, 2020, issued biweekly
