Dry Whey - Western Europe

Report 33 - Released on August 13, 2020

Whey prices in Western Europe are steady at the top of the price range but slightly lower at the bottom. German whey tends to account for the highest prices. Dutch whey registers the lower prices. Demand is calm with some evidence of relaxed buying interest. Production in some plants is believed to be slightly higher, so that is being watched in terms of whether pricing will respond moving forward.

Prices for: Western Europe, All First Sales, Free on Board - Port, Conventional, and Edible Dry Whey

Price Range - Non-Hygroscopic; $/MT: 775 - 1,050

Information for the period August 3 - 14, 2020, issued biweekly
