Casein - National Casein Report for U.S. Imports

Report 47 - Released on November 23, 2021

Slow trading this holiday week contributed to steady acid casein and rennet casein prices. Calm markets may distract from the reality that both acid and rennet casein current pricing is viewed as high by many buyers. That leaves uncertainty as to the continuing strength of current pricing when contracting into Q2 2022, which is underway. Many buyers are also awaiting the release of official October export data, before moving ahead.

Prices for: Spot Sales And Up to 3 Month Contracts, Free on Board - Warehouse, Non-Restricted, All Mesh Sizes, Conventional, and Edible Casein

Acid; Price Range - $/LB:	4.9000-5.6700
Rennet; Price Range - $/LB:	4.7200-4.9300

Information for the period November 22 - 26, 2021, issued weekly
