Firming dry whey markets pushed prices higher at both ends of the range this week as steady demand and active drying schedules continued to support values. Elevated spring milk production is maintaining ample whey availability, while buyers remained engaged with purchasing activity centered on current coverage needs. Production schedules remain active, and supplies are available for ongoing demand. Market tone remains firm, with strengthening interest helping support upward price movement.

Prices for: Western Europe, All First Sales, F.O.B. - Port, , Conventional, and Edible Dry Whey

Price Range - Non-Hygroscopic; $/MT: 1,725 - 2,225

Information for the period May 11 - 22, 2026, issued biweekly
